7 CITIES BID FOR DEM. CONVENTION

CHICAGO ORGANIZATIONS HARD PRESSING CITY'S CLAIM.

COMMITTEE MEET JAN. 8

San Francisco is Preparing to Exceed Financial Guarantee of any Other City.

Washington, D. C.—Seven cities are in friendly but active competition for the privilege of entertaining the next Democratic National convention, the place of which will be decided by the Democratic National committee at its meeting in Washington on January 8. The cities thus far in the contest are Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City, Cleveland and Cincinnati, Indianapolis and San Francisco.

Illinois Democrats, headed by National Committeeman Charles Boeschenstein, will press the claims of Chicago, which has already been selected by the Republicans as the place of their convention. It is understood that Committeeman Boechenstein will have the support of the Iroquois club, the large and lively Democratic organization of Chicago, and also of the Chicago Association of Commerce, which will be represented by a delegation of prominent business men.

According to information which has come to the headquarters of the Democratic National Committee in Washington, San Francisco is prepared to exceed the financial guarantee of any other city in the contest. A representative Californian is in the city on behalf of San Francisco and will appear before the National Committee's meeting.

It is announced that members of the Democratic National Committee have, in addition to commitments of their own, pledges or commitments of a majority of the members of the committee in favor of the next convention city, but also because of the Jackson Day dinner at the Shoreham hotel on the night of January 8. It is already forecast that there will be a large attendance of Democrats from various sections of the country, and among the speakers will be the most prominent leaders of the party. It is expected that President Wilson will send a personal message to the dinner.

Todd made a business trip to Joseph today.

Chandler Leads Where Performance Counts

WHEREVER men ask much of their automobiles the Chandler dominates. In the mountain countries it performs as many cars with larger motors do not perform. Climbing steep grades with the sharpest turns on high, creeping up and up at six or seven miles an hour on high without a miss or a skip or a sign of effort, where others shift, the Chandler holds for its driver the thrill of really satisfactory motoring.

In country roads of mud or sand, and in the congested traffic of crowded city streets, this same power and this same flexibility show their qualities.

The Chandler leads the whole six-cylinder group so distinctly because it is such a good car and so fairly priced.

The Buick Oiling System

The Buick Valve-in-Head Motor is Automatically Lubricated Thruout

The lubrication of the main bearings, wrest pin bearings, connecting rod bearings and pistons is a combination splash and pump system, with an oil presser gauge on the dash and a gauge on the crank case.

The oil pump is self-thawing and so constructed that should there be any water in the oil in cold weather causing the pump to freeze up, the self-thawing apparatus of the Buick oil pump will automatically thaw it out quickly, eliminating the possibility of injury to the pump.

Announcement

Mr. Charles McNeal, of the Price-McNeal Furniture Co., has retired from the firm and his interest has been acquired by the sons of Mr. John Price, Clun Price, John Price, Jr. and Harry Price.

Hereafter the firm name will be The Price Furniture Company, and the business will be carried on under the same policies and at the same location as before.

The firm starts with a very large stock of high grade furniture of every kind including many exclusive lines of well known, dependable merchandise such as Hoosier Cabinets, Way Sagless Springs, Brunswick and Pathe Phonographs, Wisconsin Dining Tables and White Sewing Machines.

Our lines of everything are as good as any and better than are found in many stores. Our policy is as it has always been—There is nothing too good for our customers.

Much of our stock was purchased before prices were as high as at present, and for that reason many things in our stock are real bargains. However, in order to reduce the present stock and make room for new arrivals we are preparing a Clearance Sale to take place during Maryville's Trade Week, January 10th to 17th, which will be announced in the papers in the next few days.

This store surely appreciates the business you have given it during the past seventeen years and will be grateful to all for a continuance of the same. While we have Four "Prices" in the store, everyone will give you a square deal. We are always glad to have you come in and see us whether you wish to purchase or not. We want to make ours "A Store for Service" and you will always be welcome.

The Price Furniture Co.

We wish to announce that we have employed Mr. James Rigney, formerly of the Garrett Hardware Co., who will be in charge of our tin, sheet metal and furnace work.

HOWARD WRAY HARDWARE COMPANY

This is to notify all persons indebted to the firm of Price & McNeal that I have taken over all accounts and notes due the firm and you will find me at the Price Furniture Store. All persons knowing themselves to be indebted to the firm, please call at once and settle as I have other interest to attend to.

by the old method of washing in the winter time. Even if the washing is done by hired help there is a great deal of dampness and cold connected with a whole day's washing and there is considerable drudgery in it for everyone in the house.

With the electric washer the work is all done in an hour, and done so easily that most of the mussiness is done away with.

We have a good stock of washers of the best makes, and will be glad to show you how they work.

ON THE MARK!

Get Set! Go!

The drive for 2,000 members for the Nodaway County Farm Bureau starts next Monday morning and continues through the week. During that time it is intended that every farmer in this county who is not now a member of the Bureau will be visited by solicitors who will explain the new plan of organization and the purposes of the Bureau and present to every farmer the opportunity to become member of this great organization.

The Farm Bureau

Is a National Organization for Farmers and Managed Exclusively by Farmers.

Already there are more than a half million members representing thirty-three states—and the membership campaign is only just started. It is the first well defined farmers' organization with a national program that measures up to the importance of the industry it is to represent and yet it does not in any way interfere with any of the farm organizations already in existence.

Tell Your Neighbor

About the membership campaign which starts Monday, January 5, and talk over the importance of the organization with him. A little timely boosting just now will be a wonderful help to the solicitors next week.

All those who have agreed to participate in the drive are urged to attend the meeting to be held at headquarters over the Tribune Saturday afternoon.

Wm. Linebaugh went up to Clarinda and bought the head of the buffalo that was shipped in there for Christmas meat. He brought it down and had it on exhibition at the Yates & Carmichael meat market Christmas day, but that evening he shipped it off to have it mounted and will then add it to his large collection of curios. The head was quite a curiosity to many of our people as comparatively few of them ever saw a buffalo.—Clearmont News.

Elk's New Year Party.

The Elk's New Year party given Wednesday night at the club house was probably the most delightful and novel social affair ever given in Maryville. The rooms were decorated in the Yuletide colors of red and green, and red ropes and bells were used profusely. The lights were shaded in similar colors and evergreen trees were arranged very artistically in all rooms. As the guests assembled they were taken to the basement of the club house to witness a movie show. Fatty Arbuckle in "The Cook", "Passe News" featuring George B. Baker and Fred P. Robinson and Paul Sisson, and the "Literary Digress" of smart sayings put the guests in hilarious spirits for the evening. Following the show, the guests were taken to the banquet room where an elaborate dinner was served. Chinese lillies and narcissus' were the favors at each cover. The dinner was served by the members of the Zero club. Between the courses, a troope of out of town players gave several cabaret features and a fashion show. Just as the clock struck twelve, an electrically illuminated clock displayed "Happy New Year," a letter being illuminated each stroke of the clock. Horns and rattlers were distributed to the guests and the coming of the New Year was celebrated. A drawing contest was then held downstairs, with Mrs. Jessie Miller winning the first prize, a corsage bouquet; Miss Carrie Margaret Baker received the second prize, a diamond ring, (dime and a ring) and James Todd, the third, a bottle of cold "toddy". This was followed by dancing in the banquet room with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cummins leading the grand march. Schumacher's orchestra furnished the music. The first was a favor dance and each guest was given a gayly colored cap which were designed in a variety of shapes The second was a sleighbell dance and each woman was presented with an anklet holding a sleighbell. The next speciality was the firefly dance in which the guests were given electric sparklers and with dimmed lights, was very pretty. Another novelty dance was the rye waltz which was thoroughly enjoyed. The last feature was the spiral confetti dance. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bellows, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bellows, Mrs. H. Out They Go!

Silly city ward-heelers like to kid themselves about "delivering the farmer vote." In Ontario they had notions like that last fall—and the farmers took the bit in their teeth, kicked the politicians out and elected a farmer government. Now, at the beginning of an election year, is a good time for our own politicians to take a leaf out of the Canadian notebook, says

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

For the farmers of America are united in thought and action as never before.

Consider the National Farm Bureau Federation—no politician can lead those men by the nose! Pulling together, they have determined, in effect, that the farmer shall no longer be the national goat. Acting together, they can prove that the farmer is not a profiteer, and they can have about anything they want. Every farmer should know what the united farmers are doing these days. And so he should read the Great National Farm Weekly—THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. A year's subscription will cost you only $1 and it will keep you up to date on every farm question. A vast amount of work now remains to be done which the intervention of war has necessarily delayed and accumulated, and the result is that  very large capital expenditures ought to be made to make up for the interruptions inevitably due to the war and to prepare the railroads to serve adequately the increased traffic throughout the country.
WALKER D. HINES,
Director General of Railroads

Work more—
Produce more—
Save more—

But we can't continue increasing our production unless we continue increasing our railroad facilities.

The farms, mines and factories cannot increase their output beyond the capacity of the railroads to haul their products.

Railroads are now near the peak of their carrying capacity.

Without railroad expansion—more engines, more cars, more tracks, more terminals—there can be little increase in production.

But this country of ours is going to keep right on growing—and the railroads must grow with it.

To command in the investment markets the flow of new capital to expand railroad facilities—and so increase production—there must be public confidence in the future earning power of railroads.

The nation's business can only grow as fast as the railroads grow.

TARIFF REVISION NOT LIKELY SOON

REPUBLICAN LEADERS DO NOT EXPECT CHANGES THIS SEASON

SITUATION SUMMARIZED

Until Allies Find Their Feet big Business Demand Eentry Without high Tariff.

Washington,—Revision of the tariff laws during the present session of congress is not considered possible by Republican leaders.

"There are several bills before the Senate Finance Committee providing for specific cases where adjustment is being considered" Senator Watson of Indiana said. Watson is in charge of tariff and other financial legislation in the senate. Senator Penrose, chairman of the Finance Committee, has been forced to give up his senatorial duties for several months because of illness.

The business men of the country are opposed to any revision in the tariff according to the views of Senator Penrose, as made known to the committee before he left Washington. He is in touch by phone with Senator Watson on financial matters. It is expected that his will in a great measure will be followed.

Legislation for the protection of the dye industry, passed by the House will be considered. The pending bill is known as the Longowrth anti-dumping bill. It prevents Germany and other European countries from flooding the American market with goods which would ruin the infant industry here.

The wishes of the president as expressed in his message to congress that the income and excess profits taxes should be revised to make them more workable is receiving careful consideration.

The situation as regards the tariff nay be summarized is follows:

Foreign nations owe the United States large sums of money.

Nations of Europe are not in a position to pay. They find it hard to make the obligations of interest.

The countries with which we were at war must pay their debts to their European enemies.

To do this they must have money.

To have money they must export and sell their excess wares.

To increase the tariff would be to curtail this export.

For a time until Europe, especially our allies, find their feet "big business" demands that we permit their goods to enter with out the high protective tariff. This will be followed in so far as American industry will not be injured.

The committee is considering the gains in territory made by our former allies and as soon as aid from their resources is felt in Europe the Republican congress will increase the tariff. It is not expected that the increase will take place in the immediate future

LOOKING FORWARD

GREATLY as we may pride ourselves on the achievements of the past — indeed, important as those achievements may have been—the individual, the community, the state, the nation that finds contentment in "fighting over the old battles" and is willing to rest upon the reputation made in previous struggles, offers little of hope for today's arena and tomorrow's difficulties.

The Maryville Chamber of Commerce is a forward-looking organization, and the thought of its members at this close of 1919 is directed to the problems and the opportunities that are already before us as tasks to be given the best of our energy, enthusiasm and confidence during the year 1920.

Proud of its achievements during the past year and confident of its ability to accomplish even greater things in the future, the Maryville Chamber of Commerce turns its face to the New Year with eager anticipations.

To all those who have contributed to the work of the organization and to those whose efforts have been directed toward the same end, the officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce extend greetings.

THE individuals who have developed these great herds are doing what they can to care for the sales put on from time to time, but the Maryville Chamber of Commerce realizes that there should be erected in this city a great sales pavilion—a building that will take care of the largest of the sales, that will be convenient in arrangement, comfortable in its appointments, attractive in design—such a building, in fact, as will fairly represent the importance to this county of the great pure bred livestock industry. The Chamber of Commerce has had this improvement under consideration for some time—and it is one of the tasks of its members to make this dream an actuality during the early part of the New Year. Information now is being gathered from towns where the sales pavilion has been "put over" and the local campaign may be launched within the next few weeks.

The statement that there are many things that need to be done in Maryville and Nodaway County doesn't in the slightest degree indicate that we are a backward community. In fact, the very reverse may be indicated when the admission is made that much new work is calling the men of Maryville to renewed efforts. It is one of the conditions of progress that each step forward brings new opportunities for further advances, new calls for improvements, new dreams to be realized.

By way of illustration: During the last year the Maryville Chamber of Commerce conducted an extensive advertising campaign for the purpose of bringing to the people of the county a better realization of the exceptional advantages attending those who have the privilege of being residents of Nodaway County. One of the departments of industrial life that stands prominently as distinctly advantageous to every resident of this county is the pure bred livestock to be found in every section of the county.

But it is contrary to the practice and the intention of the Maryville Chamber of Commerce to make promises of specific performance --- its members believe it is better to DO first and TALK about it afterwards. However, it is proper at this time to assure the people of Nodaway County that this organization is alive to the possibilities for material county and city development and eager to get into harness and work for every good thing that may be proposed during the year. The Chamber of Commerce believes that any activity that promises good for any part of Nodaway County deserves the support of this organization, because that which is beneficial to any of the people of this county is of advantage to the business and professional men of Maryville.

That this country is entering upon the greatest period of prosperity in its history is the belief of men who make it their business to find out the trend of the times. Nodaway County has an opportunity far beyond the ordinary agricultural community to participate largely in this great era of prosperity. The Maryville Chamber of Commerce enters with eagerness into the great adventure. Let's Go!
